The municipal council yesterday decided to erect a monument to the late Wilbur Wright on the plains of Anouys, where Wright made his first flight in France.

District Attorney Whitman is getting a portion at least of the knowledge that is making him the terror of the gamblers' ring of New York from the widow of the murdered man, Mrs. Herman Rosenthal. Mr. Whitman declined absolutely to make any statement regarding this report, saying that he is not ready to reveal the sources of his information. He did not deny that when the time comes, Mrs. Rosenthal will be called to the stand to tell what she knows about the inside secrets of the graft syndicate.

The Balkan situation still is threatening. The Albanian public is clamoring for war and efforts to procure a settlement with Montenegro have failed, according to reports in European capitals. The Montenegrin cabinet has resigned, supposedly to pave the way out of a dangerous situation arising from the frontier fighting at Berana.

The Marquise De La Motte d'Armenberg De Esso yesterday, in a sudden fit of insanity, threw herself and her three children into a canal near Concelles, Belgium. The cries of the children brought help in time to save the entire family.

Two hundred and twenty-eight Russian non-commissioned officers and soldiers were tried by court martial in the Sappers' camp at Tashkent yesterday on the charge of mutiny. Fifteen of them were sentenced to be hanged, seven acquitted and 206 sent to jail for various terms.

Anna Held, the actress, today obtained an interlocutory decree of divorce from Florenz Ziegfeld, the theatrical manager.

Peace negotiations between China and Tibet which were opened some time ago at Lhasa, the Tibetan capital, have been concluded. All of the Chinese troops are to leave Tibet. Chinese traders will be permitted to remain in the country.

United States Senator Bacon was renominated at the Democratic primaries today for a fourth consecutive term.

Caught by a sudden gust of wind while making an exhibition flight at Lamar, Colorado yesterday George Thompson, a Denver aviator, fell two hundred feet to the ground and was instantly killed when his machine turned turtle. When the planes began to tip the aviator attempted to save himself by jumping.

Rebels in the State of Sonora have burned and looted the town of Ladrara. The steamer Bonita Jaurez and the gunboat General Guerrero have been seized by the rebels.

President Yuan Shih-Kai cast off all pretense of being bound by the commands of the body of lawmakers and adopted a high tone today in his message to the assembly he took the stand that the body was acting without due authority and that he owed no explanation of his orders, given, as he claims, in an emergency.

Secretary Knox and Admiral Reynolds, who will represent the United States at the Mikado's funeral, left on the Maryland tonight.

William C. Macado, acting chairman of the Democratic National Committee, left for New York yesterday after an all day series of conferences with Democratic leaders from many States, during which plans were decided upon for the presidential campaign in the West.

President Taft today appointed a committee of government officials to investigate the board of United States general appraisers to ascertain if there has been neglect of duty, malfeasance in office or inefficiency on the part of any of the board members. The board has headquarters in New York.

Colonel Roosevelt was asked whether he was willing to go before the Clapp committee to testify in regard to the statement that contributions were made to the 1904 campaign by the Standard Oil Company. "This is absurd," he said, "the letters and telegrams that passed between Mr. Cortelyou and myself are enough."

The senate today passed the new budget bill exactly as it was passed in the house yesterday. It continues to March 4 next the appropriations for the continuance of the commerce court.
